

Email scripts, from hello@builtformainstreet.com

Every sales email ends with the signature below: your name, Voice number, mailing address and a way to stop. The law requires the address and the opt-out. Send each one to yourself first. Short beats clever. One ask per email.

1 · COLD, OR THE SAME DAY AS A VOICEMAIL

Subject: quick one about [business]

Hey [name],

I looked up [business] this morning the way a customer would. I asked ChatGPT who's good for [trade] in [town]. It named [name] and [name], not you. [There's also no website for Google to send people to.]

I'm not an agency. It's just me, local, one business at a time. I do a free 10-minute check that shows what people see when they look you up and what's keeping you off the list.

Want me to send it?

Miles

2 · DAY 3, REPLY IN THE SAME THREAD

Hey [name], following up on [business]. Happy to send the check, no cost and no call needed to read it. If now's not the time, just say so and I'll leave it. Miles

3 · DAY 7, THE LAST ONE

Subject: closing the loop

Hey [name], I won't keep filling your inbox. If you ever want to see what customers find when they look up [business], reply "check" and I'll send it. All the best with the season. Miles

4 · CHECK BOOKED

Subject: your free check, [day] at [time]

Hey [name], thanks for the time today. I'll call you [day] at [time] and walk you through what Google and ChatGPT show for [business]. Ten minutes. Talk then. Miles

5 · THEY SAID YES

Subject: next steps for [business]

Hey [name], thanks. Here's what we agreed: the [Small / Standard / Bigger] plan, $[setup] to build, then $[monthly] a month starting the day the site goes live.

1. The agreement: [link]
2. The payment link: [link]
3. Send 10 to 20 photos of your real work and your team.

The two weeks start when the payment and photos are in. Photos are due within 30 days. Miles

6 · REFERRAL ASK, TO A HAPPY CLIENT

Subject: a favor

Hey [name], your site's been live [x weeks] and [one real number: calls, reviews, where you now show up]. I'm taking on a few more businesses like yours. Who are two owners you'd trust me with? If you're up for it, text them my number and I'll take it from there. Thanks for being first. Miles

7 · SOMEONE REFERRED YOU

Subject: [referrer] said to reach out

Hey [name], [referrer] gave me your name. I built [his/her] site and got [business] showing up on Google and ChatGPT. I'd like to do a free 10-minute check on [your business] and show you what customers see. Tomorrow morning or after 4? Miles
