

Email scripts, from hello@builtformainstreet.com

Every sales email ends with the signature below: your name, Voice number, mailing address and a way to stop. The law requires the address and the opt-out. Send each one to yourself first. Short beats clever. One ask per email.

1 · COLD, OR THE SAME DAY AS A VOICEMAIL

Subject: quick one about [business]

Hey [name],

I looked up [business] this morning the way a customer would. I asked ChatGPT who's good for [trade] in [town]. It named [name] and [name], not you. [There's also no website for Google to send people to.]

I build websites for local businesses and help them show up when people search on Google, ChatGPT and Claude. I could put together a quick preview of what yours could look like. Completely free to take a look.

Want to see it?

Miles

1B · COLD, WHEN THEIR WEBSITE HAS A PROBLEM YOU CAN SHOW

Subject: something on [business]'s website

Hey [name],

I was on your website this morning. [The one problem, exactly as you saw it: "The email link at the bottom goes to info@mysite.com, so a customer who taps it never reaches you."] Screenshot attached.

It's a quick fix, and I'm happy to tell you how even if you don't use me. I'm local and I build websites for local businesses. If you want, I'll put together a quick preview of what yours could look like, free to take a look.

Miles

2 · DAY 3, REPLY IN THE SAME THREAD

Hey [name], following up on [business]. Happy to put the preview together, no cost and no call needed to look at it. If now's not the time, just say so and I'll leave it. Miles

3 · DAY 7, THE LAST ONE

Subject: closing the loop

Hey [name], I won't keep filling your inbox. If you ever want to see what customers find when they look up [business], reply "preview" and I'll put one together. All the best with the season. Miles

4 • CHECK BOOKED

Subject: your preview, [day] at [time]

Hey [name], thanks for the time today. Here's the preview: [link]. I'll call you [day] at [time] and walk you through it. Ten minutes. Talk then. Miles

5 • THEY SAID YES

Subject: next steps for [business]

Hey [name], thanks. Here's what we agreed: the [Small / Standard / Bigger] plan, $[setup] to build, then $[monthly] a month starting the day the site goes live.

1. The agreement: [link]
2. The payment link: [link]
3. Send 10 to 20 photos of your real work and your team.

The two weeks start when the payment and photos are in. Photos are due within 30 days. Miles

6 • REFERRAL ASK, TO A HAPPY CLIENT

Subject: a favor

Hey [name], your site's been live [x weeks] and [one real number: calls, reviews, where you now show up]. I'm taking on a few more businesses like yours. Who are two owners you'd trust me with? If you're up for it, text them my number and I'll take it from there. Thanks for being first. Miles

7 • SOMEONE REFERRED YOU

Subject: [referrer] said to reach out

Hey [name], [referrer] gave me your name. I built [his/her] site and got [business] showing up on Google and ChatGPT. I'd like to put together a free preview of a website for [your business] and walk you through it. Tomorrow morning or after 4? Miles
